1.Chairperson's Announcements

2. Approval of Previous Meeting Minutes

(1) To recruit outstanding talent, the University provides newly appointed faculty with merit pay during their first three years of service: three merit pay units in the first year, and at least one unit in the second and third years for those meeting the requirements. In line with the Ministry of Education's faculty-retention policy, a pilot measure for extra merit pay through college recommendation will be implemented in 2026-27 Academic Year. The University will seek additional funding from the MOE, with matching funds raised by the respective colleges. The Office of Research and Development will review the results of the pilot measure and consider suggestions from the colleges when making adjustments to the measure, if necessary, for the following academic year.

3.Project Report on《Planning and Implementation of the University–Industry Collaborative Talent Development Program》, presented by the Vice President for Industry Collaboration, Cheng-Chi WANG
